*This is ...
Winthrop College*

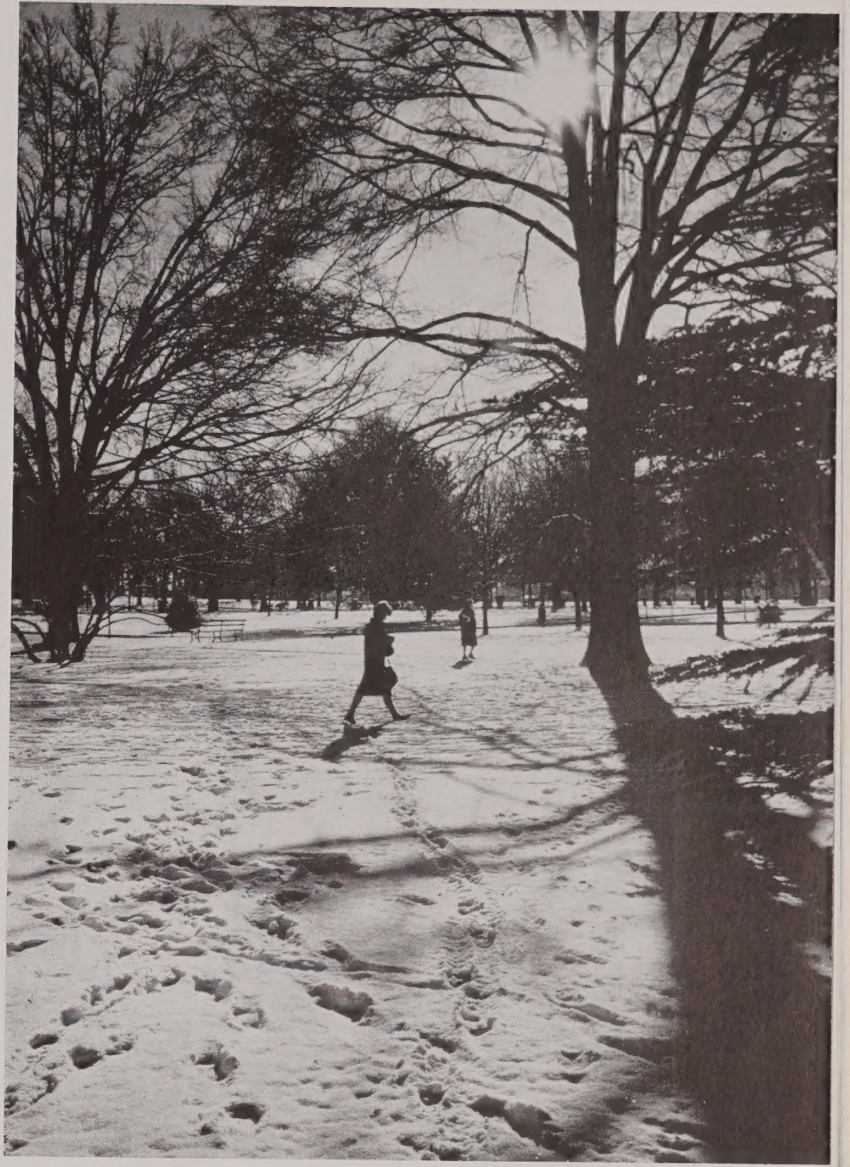

In the early fall students come and launch their ventures on the Winthrop campus. The worn walks and narrow streets allow her paths of decise direction. To the newcomers the campus is a maze of buildings and strange faces, but soon each place gains meaning and individual faces acquire names. To the upperclassmen it is the deepening of friendships and the expansion of oneself.

Amid the mundane there is the laughter, tears, and joy of weekends. There is the relief of holiday spirits which springs forth in decorations and season's greetings. The arrival of spring brings couples strolling hand in hand, election campaigns, and the decision to select a graduate school and to plan for future jobs.

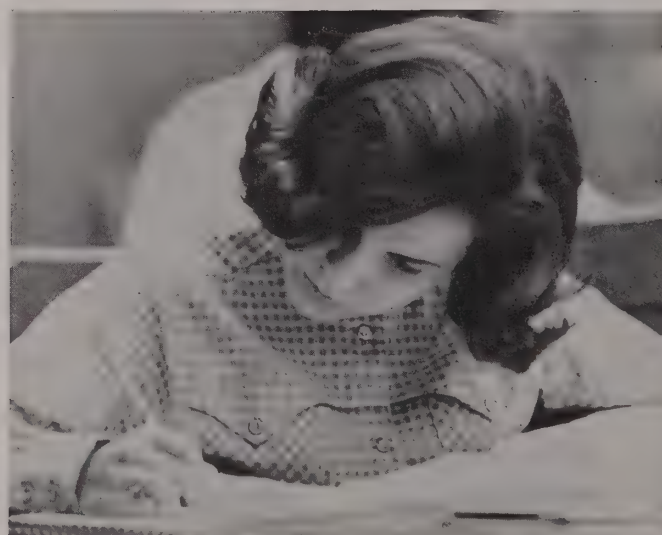

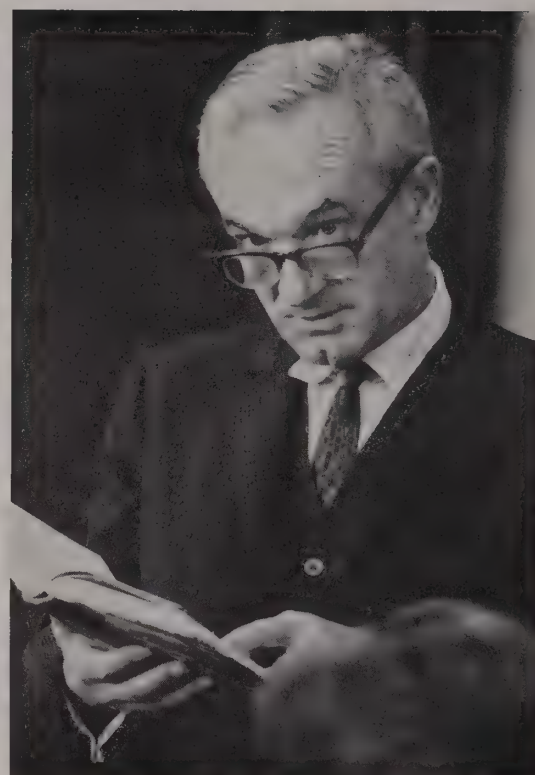

Through academic studies, artist and lecture series, class spirit, and organizations, the campus life is integrated with friendship and tradition.

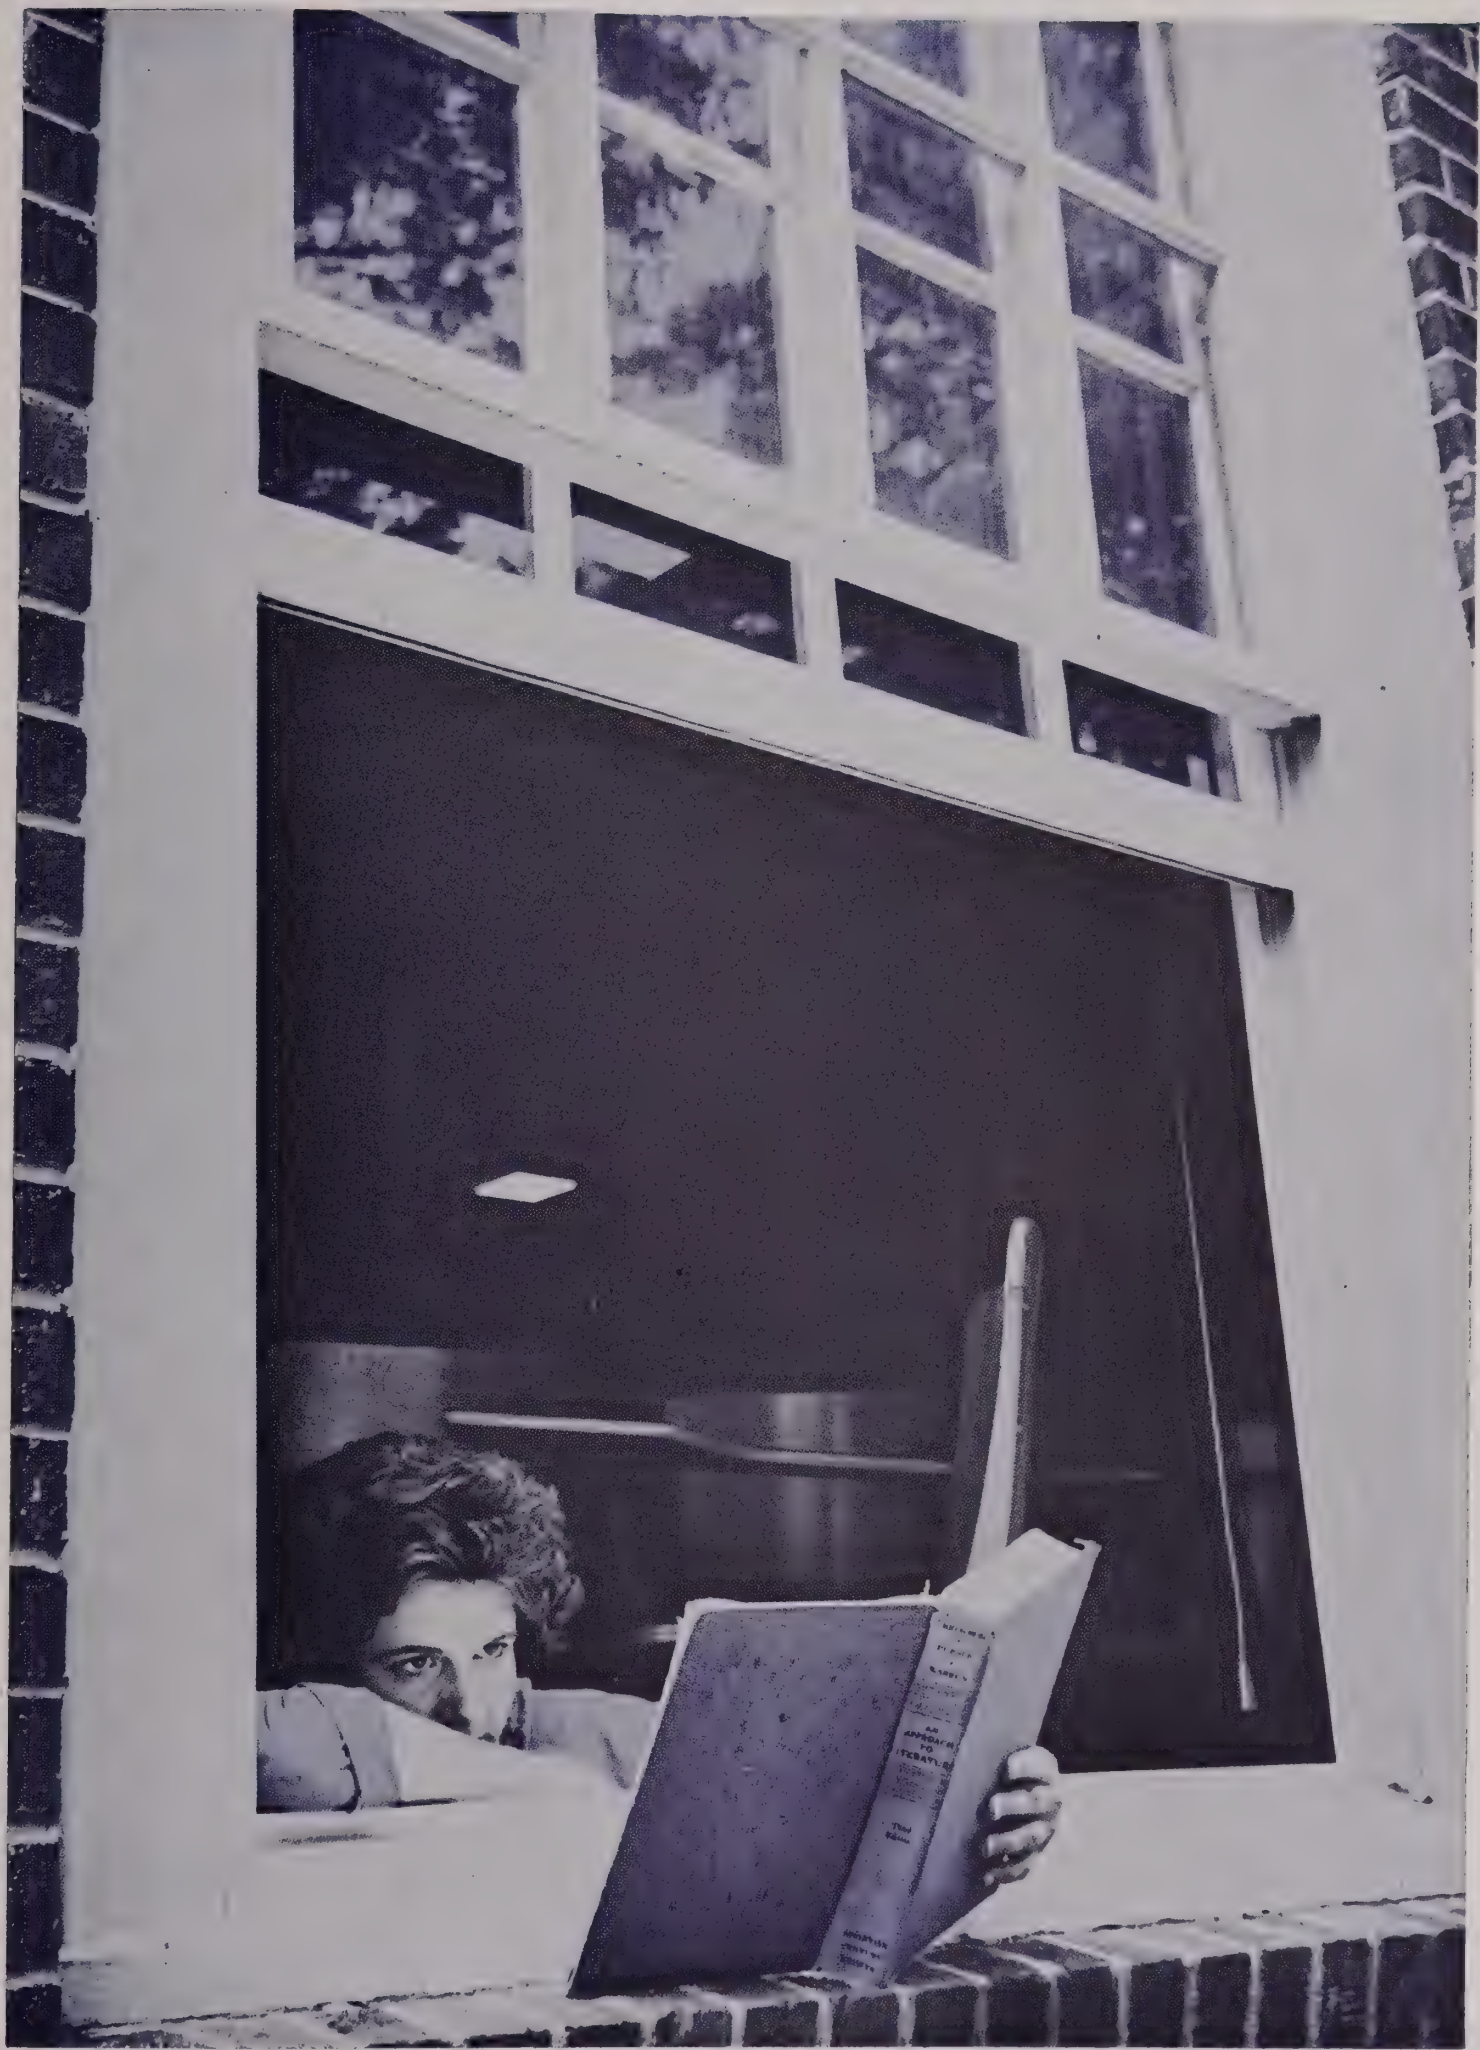

Throughout the year students find themselves engrossed in activities from Classes Night to May Day. Books are always near as well as complaints of over work. The daily routine of eating, sleeping, and studying is broken by tests, parallel, and term papers. Within this span of time each young woman learns, exchanges and dissimilates new facts and truths.

From sundry backgrounds young women gather to form the environment of our campus. Its activities and functions are constructed around the efforts and enthusiasm of its students. Through the amalgamation of people, ideas, and moods, each emerges as Winthrop.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The Student Government Association has as its membership the entire student body of Winthrop. This is significant because S. G. A. wants to meet the needs of each student. A large part of the work of the organization centers around the freshmen because they have a big adjustment to make to college life. Many of the officers are elected or appointed especially to help freshmen in their adjustments and to interest them in active participation in S. G. A. Various programs and activities are planned to make freshmen feel a part of the campus, but this year care was taken to limit these activities to allow freshmen plenty of time to learn to study.

MARY MOELLER
President

EXECUTIVE BOARD: Mary Moeller, Marilyn Plott, Tudgey Turner, Brenda Darby, Betsy McKeown, Liz Scheffey, Sheila Waldrop, Marilyn Jenkins, Sandra Dudley, B. J. Saleeby, Brenda Lanford, Flicka Tate, Sally Hart, Sara Ford, Gladys Parker.

BETSY McKEOWN
Vice-President

S. G. A. honors its members with a tea in the fall.

BREN LANFORD
Secretary

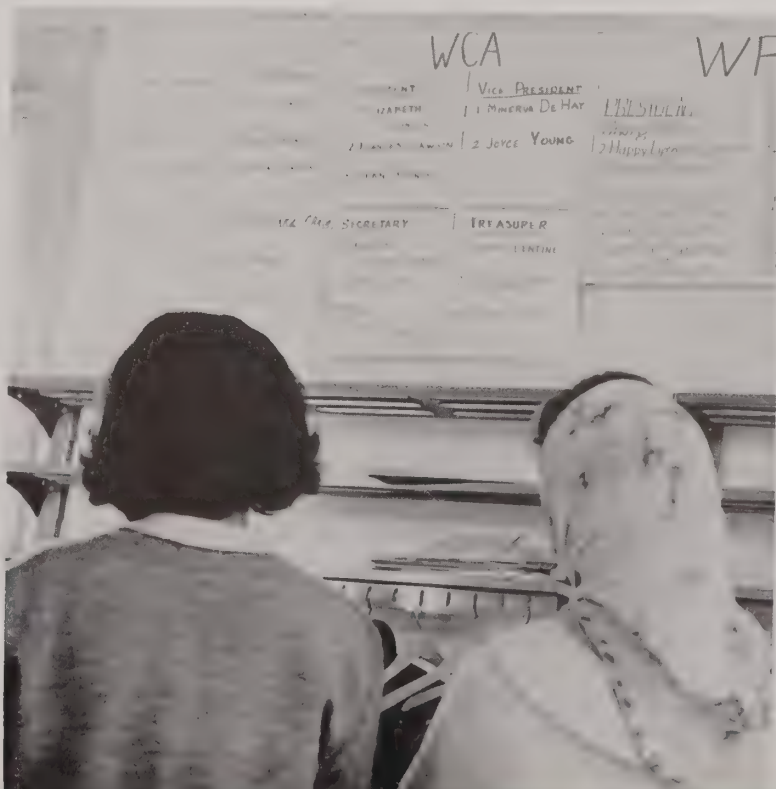

For freshmen as well as for the rest of the campus, S. G. A. exists to make campus life interesting and comfortable. It gives each student a chance to develop citizenship, maturity, and awareness by giving her individual responsibility. It provides an opportunity for many students to learn leadership and to express it in campus offices. Both of these functions of S. G. A. have carry-over value for the rest of our lives.

The Student Government Association in all of its activities hopes to round out the education of Winthrop students so that their lives away from Winthrop will be full ones.

Campus-wide elections are held by S. G. A.

BRENDA DABRY
President

The Senate is the legislative branch of the Student Government. Its members represent the student body in an official capacity and serve as a median of communication between students and administration.

Senate recognizes the right of self expression. Students are urged to discuss group needs and desires with their senators.

JUDICIAL BOARD

Through Judicial Board students themselves reprimand any who have committed serious infractions of the college regulations. This includes cases as drinking, theft, and dishonesty. Another function is to hear students' appeals from decisions of the residence hall councils.

Members of the Board are elected from each class by the entire student body to serve for a school term. The Judicial Board chairman, the secretary of the Student Government Association, four seniors, three juniors, and two sophomores rule in each individual case.

SALLY HART

BARBARA KIRKPATRICK
President

The Winthrop Christian Association has as its primary purpose to create a more Christian atmosphere on campus.

Periods of thoughtful meditation in which the student may "Be still and know . . ." are offered by the Winthrop Christian Association in dormitory Taps, weekly Vespers, Fall Services, Religion-in-Life Week, and Morning Watch before holidays.

In an effort to develop a meaningful faith for each student and to offer her new and vital religious views, the Winthrop Christian Association endeavors to bring dynamic and influential speakers to the Winthrop campus.

The Winthrop Christian Association raises the International Student Fund through the Miss Winthrop Contest, the Variety Show, and other activities. This fund gives financial aid to foreign students who wish to study at Winthrop.

During Fall Services, Rev. Lacy Harwell was the main speaker.

Dr. George Anderson, professor at the Lutheran Theological Seminary, talked on the theme of "Christ in the Classroom" during Religion-in-Life Week.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

The purpose of B. S. U. is administering to the spiritual and moral needs of Baptist students and extending the influence of Christ to the campus. This it strives to do by promoting the religious growth and spiritual development of the individual student through a campus program that complements the ministry of the church.

CANTERBURY CLUB

Operating seven days a week, the Episcopal Church on campus or Canterbury Club, now has a new kitchen. Activities of the week are Sunday school, Monday board meeting, Tuesday communion, Wednesday supper and business meeting, Thursday recreation, and Friday and Saturday open for dating. We are proud of our progress and invite all to join in the fun of carnivals, suppers, and deputations.

LUTHERAN STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The Lutheran Student Association brings girls together in a serious search for understanding and faith. In addition to attending the weekly meetings on campus, girls may participate in deputations and attend area meetings of South Carolina and Georgia and regional meetings of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, and Florida. Through these activities, the girls have the opportunity to grow intellectually and socially, as well as spiritually.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Wesley Foundation is open to all students for worship, fellowship, study, and recreation. Supplementing the church, it seeks not to spiritualize the campus, but to try to bring into focus the reality of Christ and His love as found not only in quiet chapels with soft music, but also in the tension-packed classroom and dormitory.

WESTMINSTER FELLOWSHIP

The Westminster Fellowship, under the leadership of its director, Miss Kay Johansen, strives to unite Presbyterian students in worship and in fellowship. Sunday School, vespers, study groups, service projects, deputations, monthly supper meetings with speakers, and joint worship with Oakland Avenue Presbyterian Church all combine to achieve this goal.

NEWMAN CLUB

The Newman Club is the center of religious activity for Catholic girls on the Winthrop campus. Through the various activities, the girls work together to achieve the goals of the club. The religious, social, and educational activities include communion breakfasts, religious seminars, socials, and conventions.

WINTHROP FINE ARTS ASSOCIATION

MARY ANN BRUNNEMER
President

The Winthrop Fine Arts Association, through art, dance, drama, literature, and music, strives to create a deeper interest in the fine arts on the Winthrop campus.

All students upon entering Winthrop College become members of WFFA, SGA, WRA, and WCA. These organizations created by and for all students enlighten the student, complementing her academic surrounding.

The Winthrop Fine Arts Association sponsors and promotes interest in the visual and audio-visual arts and strives to realize the individual's need for social and cultural understanding of the creative arts.

The Winthrop Recreation Association is the Winthrop student on the move. This outreaching organization touches all on campus and brings them together through its various phases of Residence Hall, PEM, and Special Events Program:

Together as dorms participants, we sought victory through competition in team sports of volleyball, hockey, softball, and basketball.

Together with our dates, we have spent our leisure time dancing to the latest sounds from Peabody Gymnasium.

Together, we have torn our class notebooks and frantically searched our desk drawers for that last and most valuable Silver Bear and Wright-Right coupons—the ticket to the famous cook-outs!

Together, we have delighted in Game Night.

Together, we rode (and walked) with the bicycles.

Together, in extramurals, we have been proud to carry Winthrop's name whether winning or losing (as we sometimes did).

Together, we have sung—so it seemed our voices were as one.

Together, through the PEM Program our professional attitude has been strengthened.

Together, we have experienced a growth in our outlook and ideals through the Winthrop Recreation Association.

"This is Winthrop College"—her aims, her ideals; her happiness, her sorrow; her students. We, the TATLER staff, have attempted to portray Winthrop in all her many facets, showing each of her many sides.

Each part of the TATLER was designed to present some phase of Winthrop life. The navy cover is somewhat reminiscent of the well-known, though theoretically nonexistent, "Winthrop blue line;" each section is devoted to one phase of our campus life; the pictures and snapshots are vivid recollections of past events; most revealing of all, the new student life section gives insight into the heart of Winthrop—a close, familiar look at Winthrop students.

We present you with the 1964 TATLER—this is Winthrop College.

ANTHOLOGY

The Anthology is the student literary magazine published annually by the board of publications. As the newest publication on campus, The Anthology proudly presented Winthrop with the first issue of their magazine this spring. Hopefully aiming to continue the tradition of The Journal, Winthrop's literary magazine for nearly fifty years, the purpose of The Anthology is to collect material written by Winthrop students such as short stories, poems, essays, reviews, and sketches and to publish the best of that submitted.

THE JOHNSONIAN

SALLIE NORTON
Business Manager

The Johnsonian is the medium by which students are informed of the events on campus and the faculty and administration are made aware of the attitudes and opinions of the students.

News events are given complete unbiased coverage. In addition, The Johnsonian provides new and provocative viewpoints by way of letters, columns and editorials. Through these, The Johnsonian conveys the attitudes of the Winthrop student.

The Johnsonian strives always to do its part toward making Winthrop one of the best and most progressive schools in the South while still reflecting the "Spirit of Winthrop."

DALE HAYES
Manager

WCRO, the college radio station functions as an informative outlet for the students. Operating as a carrier-current station, WCRO may be heard only on the Winthrop campus.

The college station has a student staff headed by Dale Hayes. WCRO operates as a laboratory for students enrolled in Radio-Television Production courses.

During the evening hours the station broadcasts entertainment programs of interest to the students and supplements classroom instruction.

HANDBOOK

When thinking of the Handbook, most Winthrop students visualize rules and tests. Rules are important here at Winthrop, but included in the Handbook are other things necessary to campus life. From the Handbook, a new student gains valuable information about the many and varied organizations on Winthrop's campus.

The Handbook, published during the summer months by two Rock Hill girls, is a constant companion to all students as a reference for any questions that may arise during the year.

NANCY JONES, Business Manager; MARGARET RUSSELL, Editor.

PUBLICATIONS BOARD

The purpose of the Publications Board is to select the editors of the Johnsonian, the TATLER, and the Anthology and to establish certain standards which each publication must meet.

These student editors are allowed a great amount of freedom in presenting a true picture of Winthrop to their fellow students.

SIGMA EPSILON KAPPA

DR. ROBERT LANE, Advisor; PATSY ROLFE, President; KATHY HORTON, Social Chairman; DORRIS YOUNG, Secretary-Treasurer; LEE OLIVER, Vice-President; MYRA WHITE, Publicity Chairman.

Sigma Epsilon Kappa, composed of junior and senior English majors, proposes to further the literary arts and to achieve a higher interrelationship with other facets of the liberal arts on the Winthrop campus. In pursuit of these goals, Sigma Epsilon Kappa initiated many progressive programs this year: A successful faculty-student variety show, sponsored by WFAA, made funds available for the club to place a selection of fine arts magazines in the dormitories; book reviews were published in the Johnsonian; and discussions were held following the Informal Dramas. These and other programs combine with a variety of intra-club activities in making 1963-64 an active year.

WINTHROP THEATRE

The Winthrop Theatre seeks to give practical experience in all phases of the theatre: makeup, acting, lighting, costuming, and scenery design.

This year the Informal Drama was introduced in the Winthrop Theatre. The eight informal programs were presented without extensive technical production to give a more overall view of drama. These programs included selections from Henrick Ibsen, Irish drama, and contemporary comedy.

There were four major productions during the year. These included The Glass Menagerie by Tennessee Williams, and The Trojan Women by Euripides.

The theatre also sponsors the Palmetto Drama Festival each spring, which brings high school drama groups from all over South Carolina to Winthrop.

WINHECON

Winhecon, the Winthrop Home Economics Club, is affiliated with the American and South Carolina Home Economics Associations. Through Winhecon, home economics majors attain a more professional outlook and the stimulation of inter-student exchange.

KATHRYN JENKINS, Vice-President; SUSIE DONAHOE, Secretary; JACKIE BRUCE, President; ELAINE CATHCART, Treasurer.

We arrived at Winthrop scared and alone—but soon were making friends and getting to know people and becoming part of the Freshman Class. Our whole year has been one of adjustment and growth.

We learned about class spirit, a strange custom known as Classes Night, and adopted for our mascot, the tiger, and our colors, purple and gold. Our spirit of class competition soon matched that of the other classes, and we joined them in the experience of college life.

Through the courses of civilization, English, and biology we broadened our academic outlook. We attended Artists Courses, Cinema Series, and lectures to widen our cultural aspects. Before we knew it, we had become an integral part of Winthrop College—the Class of '67.

Sophomores

"... the immortal Class of '66!" and that's just what we intend to be. We began this year with spirits running high and proved our enthusiasm as we "thought young" with Peter Pan at Classes Night. Our blanket arrived just in time for the big event, and this increased our class spirit even more. In November we once again proved our loyalty as we spent a "Hawaiian Holiday" to celebrate Sophomore Week. Led by our Bulldog we are certain that we will succeed in our quest for knowledge, understanding, and truth.

Next year, we will miss our Senior Sisters who have stood by us so faithfully, but we hope we can make them proud of us by being truly united and spirited during our finals years at Winthrop.

"Unity our byword, Success our Claim,
The Junior Class was destined to fame."

"Our goals were higher than the sun," but with a feeling of pride we view our accomplishments. As upperclassmen, and for the first time as Big Sisters, we gained a new sense of responsibility.

As the luck of the Irish would have it, the leprechauns reached into their Pot of Gold and handed us the secret of eternal youth and the coveted second place at Classes Night.

Decisions came—whether to get a small ring or a medium, what committee to sign up for Follies, and who to ask to the Junior-Senior.

Now the decisions have all been made, our plans carried out, and our goals accomplished. It has been a year of hard work, fun, and maturing as we prepared to enter our last year of college and then the world.

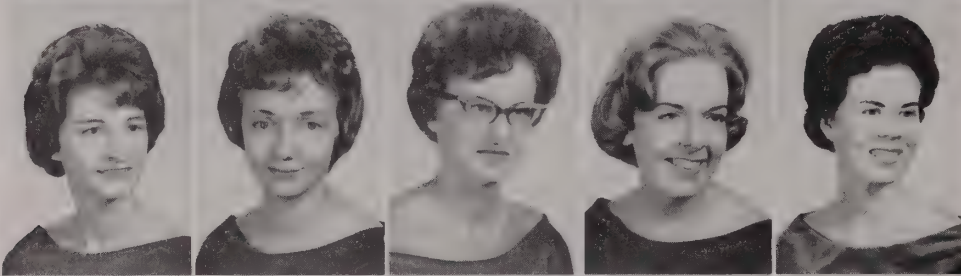

With stronger bonds of friendship, a renewed spirit of loyalty and unity, and an ever-growing pride in the Class of '65, we look to our senior year with heads and hearts high, knowing that "win or lose, together we stand!"

Entering as verdant freshmen and emerging as dignified seniors, we the class of 1964, with a shout of "Glory," bid you the student body farewell. With the gold and black class colors we have won the silver cup for classes night. Our winning theme saw long green worms metamorphosize into butterflies.

As the year ends, we anticipate May Day,

Senior Week, and Graduation. With the memories of four years, we recall the Oriental theme of our junior-senior, the Indians of sophomore week and the cards which as freshman won second place at Classes Night.

To you, the student body, we throw our torch. Catch it and hold it high.

KAPPA EPSILON PI

Kappa Epsilon Pi, open to honor students from all departments of Winthrop College, is dedicated to the unity and democracy of education. Its prime object is to encourage "Fellowship in Learning" and to give recognition to students of sound character and ability who have maintained high scholastic standards.

Any undergraduate student who has achieved these ideals and who ran in the top five per cent of her class in the final semester of her junior year or who ranks in the top ten per cent of her class in her senior year is eligible for membership. Emphasizing scholarship and character, Kappa Epsilon Pi strives to foster the significant purposes for which institutions of higher learning have been found.

CONCERT - SPEAKERS

Through the Artist and Lecture Series the students are exposed to stimulating and contemporary ideas. Among the performances on campus this year was Roger Williams, who presented a spring concert of popular music. Earlier in the year Daniel Shore lectured in assembly and dis-

CONCERT - SPEAKERS

The delight of all Winthrop students was T. H. White, who rambled from his novel the Once and Future King to his philosophy of "learn any and all that you can." Dame Alicia Markova described her life as a renown ballet dancer. The San Francisco Ballet performed abstract and classical ballet. There were concerts by the Juilliard String Quartet, pianist Leon Fleisher, and cellist Janos Straker. The National Players presented Shakespeare's Taming of the Shrew.

SAN FRANCISCO BALLET

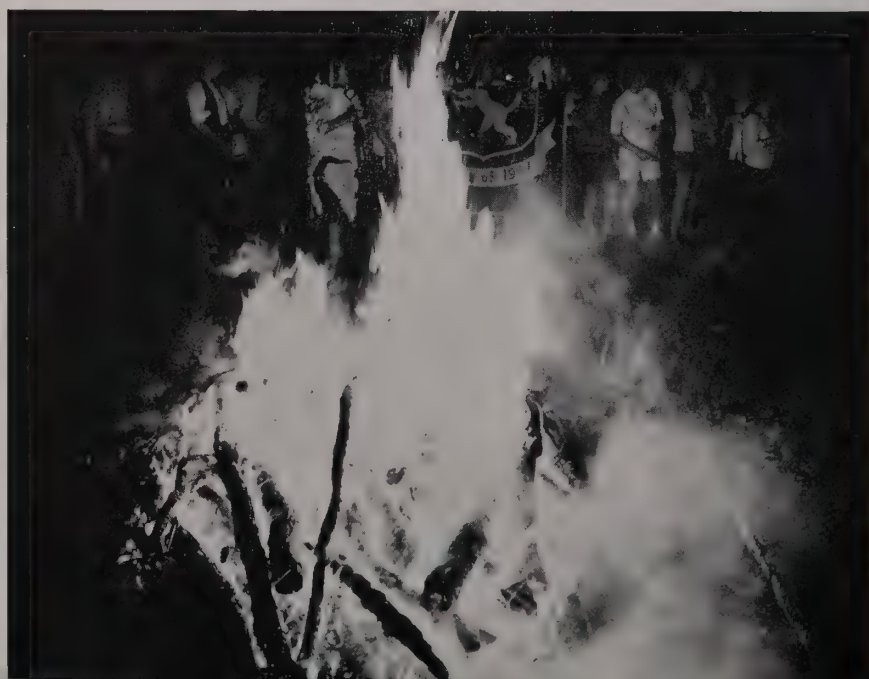

Student Life

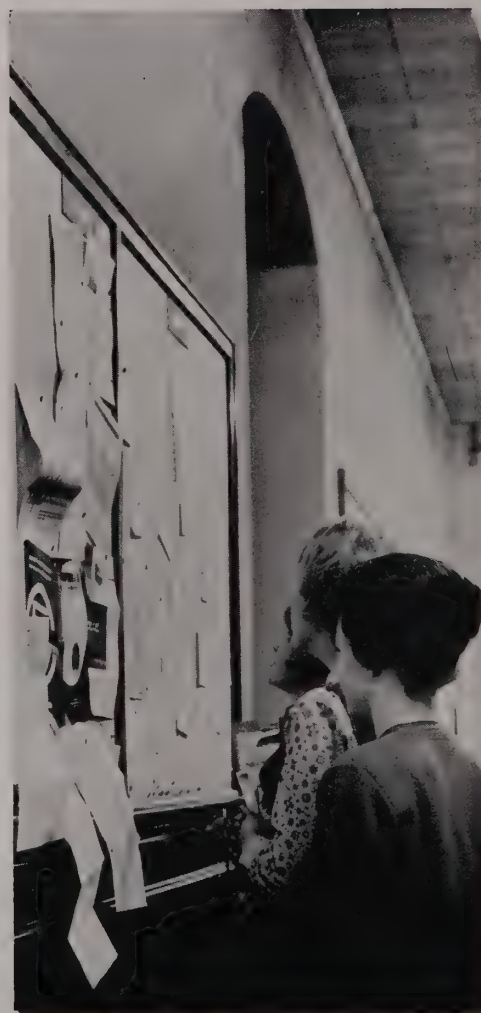

This is a new section on Student Life. Through these pages the attempt is to show a cross-current of Winthrop students. Through varying functions, each girl matures and becomes a Daughter of Winthrop College. This must include academic and extracurricular activities. These selected, candid pictures are the Winthrop students as they walk, as they play, as they laugh.

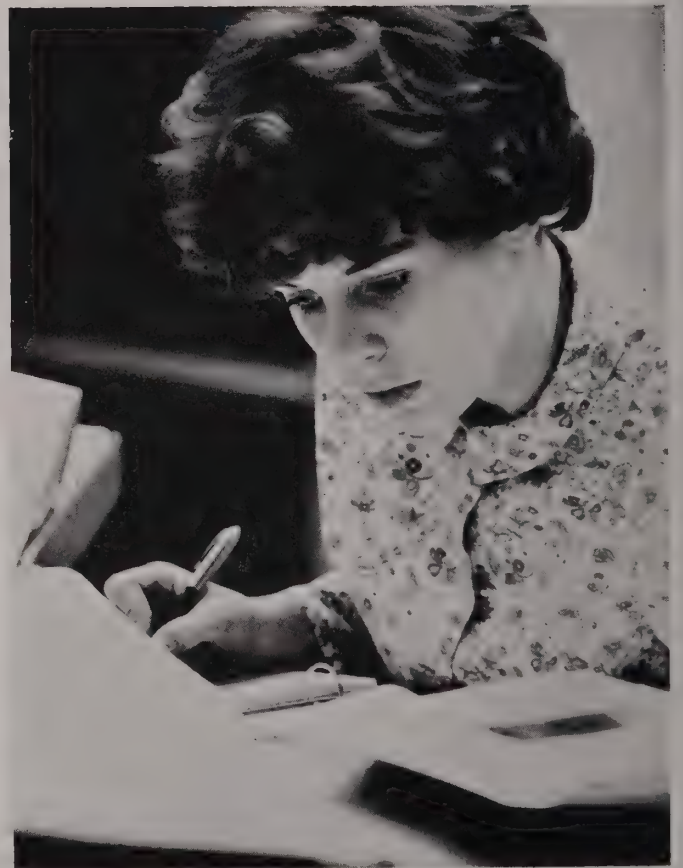

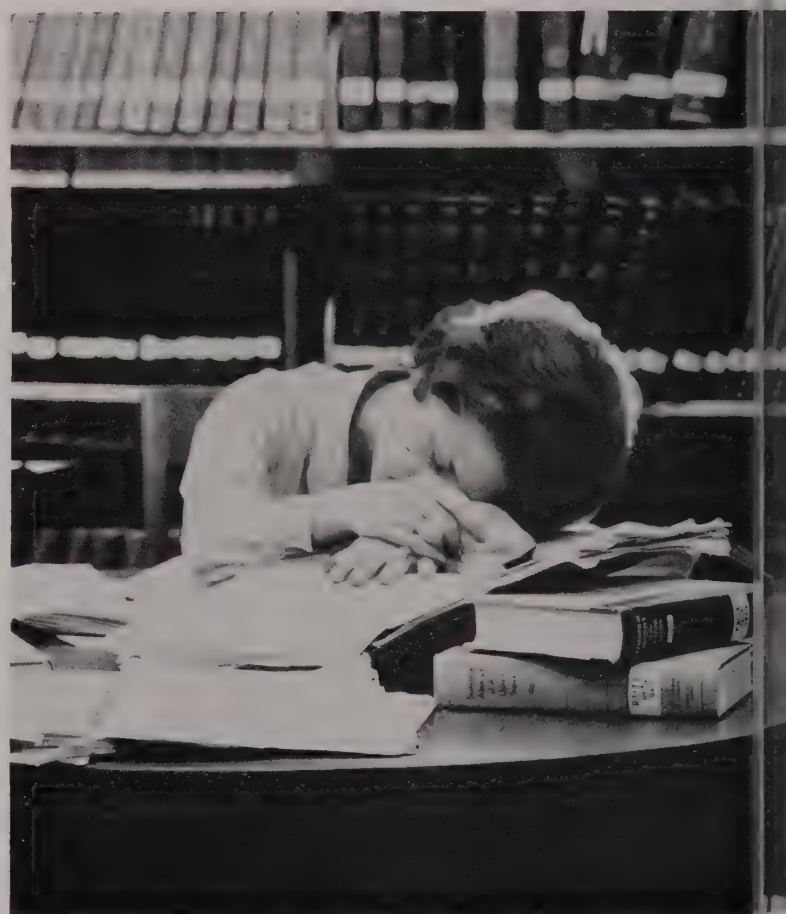

Epilogue

Through the spectrum of loafers crackling in the leaves, umbrellas bobbing on a rainy day, flowers in the spring, and graduation tingling of excitement and the future, the students learn to count books as familiar acquaintances and the arts as an intimate friend; to gain a sense of values; to become poised and refined young women who have a modern outlook tempered by tradition and individuality blended with friendship.

This is Winthrop.
